

Inny Kayak club membership instructions

Club is now using Canoeing Ireland (CI) Website for Membership : See <https://membership.canoe.ie/>

Canoeing Ireland membership needs to be paid at the same time as Club membership.

Instructions

- New members, or members who have not previously joined Canoeing Ireland will need to do so. See <https://membership.canoe.ie/> "Become a Member"
 - Existing CI members should log in to their existing CI account via <https://membership.canoe.ie/> "Member Login". If you do not remember the email address you used to register with Canoeing Ireland, then contact innykayakers@gmail.com for your details.
 - Anyone who has previously registered with CI individually, or to another club, can add Inny Kayak Club as their club, and then pay IKC membership
- For existing members click 'Renew Membership'
- For New members Select Inny Kayak Club from list of Clubs.
- Select your Inny Kayak Club membership type
 - All existing Club fee types are ported to the CI tool as per list below

- Additional Club requirements (WhatsApp usage, Picture usage and indemnity statement) are included in the 'Code of conduct' section. Please read and consider these as part of your membership. We hope to separate these out to individual questions in the future (Canoeing Ireland are supporting us in making these changes, as other clubs need the same).

- Junior members
 - All junior members must be registered individually
 - A parent must register Juniors with an adult's email address
 - Multiple Juniors can be linked to one email address.
- Family Membership
 - All family members need to be registered under the same account.
 - When paying the club fee for the family, the system will automatically select the appropriate family group discount (max €130).
 - Canoeing Ireland fees will apply to each member.
- Complete online payment. There is a stripe standard fee added to each transaction.

This is a new process so please bear with us and we will get everyone signed up as quickly as possible.
